

Leadership Goes to the Movies

A One-Day Online Seminar for Federal Leaders, Supervisors,
Managers, Employees, and Union Officials

January 26, 2021 8:00am – 2pm – Central Standard Time
Location: Online Course using Zoom Platform

Open-Enrollment Cost: $100 per person

Contact: pitthal@aol.com or Hal Pitt at 719-313-2540 MST

Grab your popcorn and get cozy because
Hal Pitt Seminars is taking you to the movies.
Learn about leadership from some of your favorite movies. In this entertaining and informative workshop, you'll discover how to motivate and inspire others to peak performance

Braveheart
Hoosiers
Norma Rae
Crimson Tide
Remember the Titans
Gettysburg
Glory
Bridesmaids
Stripes
Scent of a Woman
The Great Outdoors
The Elephant Man
Mr. Holland's Opus
Elizabeth
Rocky
...and many more

Comments from past participants

"Why didn't I learn this stuff years ago? It would have changed the way I lead and changed the way I raised my children. Transformational information from Hal Pitt."

- attendee at City of Everett, WA

"Hal, I want you to know that I have been practicing some of the stress management techniques you shared in the course. I am sleeping better than I ever have and am sharing this information with others." – attendee at Architect of the Capitol, Washington D.C.

"I can't believe that it worked! I shared the character anchor information from your Neuroscience of Leadership course with my team and now we are all practicing your strategies. It has truly changed my team for the better." – attendee, at VA in Lebanon, PA

"Hal. I reflect on my character anchor every day. It has helped me weather the storms of politics in D.C. and helped me focus every day on my integrity and character."

- high level official in Washington D.C.

"Your course has made me realize I need to change some biases I have that are harming me and my family. I am going to call my father tonight and tell him how much I love him. Thanks so much for our workshop." – attendee at National Parks Service workshop

"WOW! AWESOME! FANTASTIC! BRILLIANT! Hal, those are just some of the words that describe your workshop." – manager at Naval Shipyard, Bremerton, WA

"I really enjoyed the way you integrate multimedia into your presentation. Really kept me interested. I didn't want to fall asleep one time and that is rare for me in courses."

- Attendee in New Orleans, Louisiana

"Hal, since your course, my team has implemented a new mission, vision and core values. We are going to have a kickoff barbecue next month. Thanks for the helpful information you shared in the seminar. Hope to see you again in the future." – senior leader at a city in Wyoming

"I wish I could take you with me and you could present this information to our senior leadership. I believe it would revolutionize our culture." – attendee in Denver, CO

"Why aren't more senior leaders taking this course? They send the managers but think they don't need to learn anymore. I can't think of the last time our leaders have attended any of our leadership courses." – manager at Department of Transportation

The Oklahoma City Federal Executive Board
Presents an open-enrollment seminar:
“Leadership Goes to the Movies”
26 January, 2021

Registration

(Send this registration form to Hal Pitt Seminars at pitthal@aol.com)

Please Print

Name: _____

Agency: _____

Address: _____ City/Zip: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Payment Method

Visa/MasterCard (please complete the required information below)

CARD Number

____ _

Expiration Date: ____ / ____ Visa ____ or Master Card ____

Zip Code attached to the Credit Card: ____ _

CVV Security Code (found on back of card by signature): ____ _

Total amount to be charged: $100.00

Name of Cardholder: _____

Email Address of Cardholder: _____

Phone number of Cardholder: _____

You will receive an email merchant account confirmation once the card has been processed for your records

If you have any questions about payment or this course, contact
Hal Pitt, CEO, Hal Pitt Seminars
719-313-2540 or pitthal@aol.com